Dismissal

Yaşar University, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to dismiss any participants for any of the following reasons: failure to participate fully in all program components, failure to observe published policies or procedures, failure to disclose information requested by the Yaşar University (e.g. health information), failure to accept the fundamental values of the course, ill health that interferes with effective program participation, or conduct that is, in the sole judgment of the course trainers, improper or offensive to Yaşar University, the hosting school, ESOL students, or other program participants, or is potentially detrimental to the health and safety of the participant or the health and safety of other participants in the course, or inappropriate for the course or for study in a cross-cultural environment. Examples may include, but are not limited to the use of drugs, excessive alcohol consumption, and unacceptable sexual behavior. In the event of dismissal, the normal refund schedule will apply.

Miscellaneous

These conditions of participation supersede any previous or contemporaneous understandings with Yaşar University, whether written or oral, and cannot be changed except in writing and signed by an authorized officer or agent of Yaşar University. Should any provision or aspect of this agreement be found unenforceable, all remaining provisions of the agreement remain in full force and effect. Should there be any dispute concerning participation in the course that would require the adjudication of a court of law, such dispute or lawsuit must be filed only in a court in Turkey or in the United States District Court for the District of Turkey to the exclusion of any other court or jurisdiction. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of the state of Turkey (without regard to its conflicts of law rules).
